

Author Bio

Elizabeth Adair has written internationally published fiction and nonfiction and is a graphics designer. THE SUN AND STARS is her first novel. Elizabeth's connection to Tudor England has a long history. Her ancestors belonged to the Boleyn kinship circle and may have included Margaret Boleyn Sackville, aunt to Anne Boleyn. After a decade on the West Coast, Elizabeth returned to her home, the Kentucky Bluegrass, where she lives in a small town and is an advocate and worker for the aftercare of retired racehorses.
